THE KAKHOVKA RESERVOIR DISASTER: THE FUTURE OUTLOOK

5-6 June 2025

Dear colleagues!

We invite scientists, researchers, teachers, young scientists, doctoral students, postgraduates, applicants of all levels of higher education, representatives of public authorities and non-governmental organizations to participate in the International Scientific and Practical Conference.

The Conference Themes and Topics:

Theme 1. Revitalization of the river, biodiversity and habitats: observations and first conclusions.

Theme 2. Social and environmental consequences of the disaster: regional and local development and recovery strategies

Theme 3. Transformation of the economy: ways of development "without water".

The scientific framework of the conference: Soon it will be two years since the Kakhovka Reservoir disaster occurred as a result of the destruction of the dam of the Kakhovka Hydraulic Power Plant. What has happened since then? What consequences do we have today, what has changed, and what can we expect in the future? Many questions remain open, some are already a fact of life, and we aim to form an interdisciplinary discourse: how nature in general and people in particular have been developing in the new conditions during the two years without the dam.

CONFERENCE ORGANISING COMMITTEE:

Ihor Pylypenko Head of the Organising Committee, Doctor of Geography, Professor, Dean of the Faculty of Biology, Geography and Ecology, Kherson State University.
